Dear Healthcare Marketer,

What could be better to talk or read about than food and wine? It's certainly a favorite topic for me! I am a foodie...I just plain love food and drink.

Some of my family's favorite restaurants around town are Osteria Giotto in Montclair for authentic excellent Italian, McLoone's Boathouse in West Orange for drinks on a beautiful outside balcony that affords a lovely water view. For thin, thin pizza and an extra-good house salad, the best in our area is Caldwell's Angeloni's. If we're willing to travel a little farther, we head over to Star Tavern in Orange for their world-famous thin-crust pizza in a casual family setting. My kids' favorite is Chipotle Mexican Grill... I guess that is the equivalent of McDonald's when we grew up. However, I think Chipotle is a little healthier. Personally, for lunch with a little extra flavor flare, I love Red Eye Cafe in Montclair for their turkey, brie, and pear sandwich on multigrain and for breakfast or brunch, Raymond's, also in Montclair for their famous French toast. For outstanding New York steakhouse quality and style, my choice is Rare Steakhouse in Little Falls. And when in New York City, it's Ellen's Stardust Diner for Broadway fun and singing waiters, Mario Batali and Joseph Bastianich's Babbo for amazing regional Italian cuisine accompanied by a renowned variety of wines, and the beautiful BG Restaurant at Bergdorf Goodman's for lunch in style with a view of Central Park. Next month I will share more of my favorites. Because this month we had so much editorial, we had to divide it into two issues.

Judging by the shows, cable channels, magazines, and blogs dedicated to Restaurants, Recipes, and Wines, I'm not alone in my love of a delicious meal accompanied by the perfect glass of wine. So we thought it would be fun to ask you to share your favorites. And based on the overwhelming response to our polls, you too share a passion for food and wine. We've got a tantalizing array of choices that are sure to give you perfect ideas for summer dining in or out...plus the perfect wines to pair.

RECIPES: Daniel J. Adams provides a delectable alternative to the classic burger with a Pineapple Teriyaki Chicken Burger. Carol Meerschaert offers a family recipe for crowd-pleasing Chocolate Cake with the perfect ratio of cake to icing. Praline Squares anyone? We've got that recipe from Kelli Bishop. Plus a simply delicious Bourbon Chicken recipe from Susan Price. And an authentically Southern Corn Pudding recipe from Carole DeLosa.

WINES: Enjoy excellent wine recommendations from Chardonnay to Cabernet Sauvignon and from Sauvignon Blanc to Dry Riesling, with reviews from Alya Sherman, Julie Jimenez, Jay Carter, and Alan Bianchi.

RESTAURANT REVIEWS AND AN UP-CLOSE AND PERSONAL ENCOUNTER WITH LIDIA BASTIANICH: Looking for an awesome meal out? We've got suggestions on everything from classic Italian and European to Chinese with a Middle-Eastern flare and reasonable but exceptional Tapas from our reviewers who include Kathleen Harrison, Nancy Souza, Lisa Desbiens, Bradley Huff, John Alberto, and Iris Kang. Join Andrew McGuire's culinary adventure as he shares his foodie journey with Lidia Bastianich. And thanks go to John Loughran this month for giving us an inside look at his life through Personal Exchange.

Enjoy this issue! Maybe you'll find an idea or two for celebrating Father's Day...And be sure and come back again next month for lots more Food and Wine Reviews, and Recipes you can enjoy all summer long.

Happy Father's Day!
Here's to a relaxing and refreshing summer,

Nancy

Teriyaki Chicken Burger with Crushed Pineapple

BY DANIEL J. ADAMS

This is one of my favorite recipes when looking for an alternative to a traditional burger.

Ingredients

- 1 pound ground chicken (preferably white meat)
- 1 8 oz can crushed pineapple, drained
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 2 grinds cracked black pepper
- 1 jalapeño pepper, diced (optional)
- 3 cloves garlic, pressed
- 5 tablespoons teriyaki sauce (divided: 2 Tbsp and 3 Tbsp)

Cooking Instructions

1. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate.
2. Combine ground chicken and pineapple in a large bowl; season with salt and black pepper. Mix jalapeño pepper, pressed garlic, and 2 tablespoons teriyaki sauce into the chicken mixture. Continue mixing with your hands until evenly combined. Shape into 4 to 6 patties, depending on desired size.
3. Cook burgers on preheated grill until no longer pink in the center and the juices run clear, 7 to 10 minutes per side, basting the burgers with remaining 3 tablespoons teriyaki sauce. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center should read at least 165°F (74°C).

Preparation Tips

In total this takes about 30-40 minutes to prepare and cook. One tip I have when making these burgers is to either freeze them for a bit or add bread crumbs to help with the consistency. They don't hold together quite as well as ground beef, but by freezing or adding breadcrumbs, it definitely helps. In my experience freezing has worked best.

"Chocolate Cake from Ruth"

BY CAROL MEERSCHAERT

I have this written on a 3" x 5" card copied from my mom's recipe book. She got it from Ruth, our neighbor down the street. Years later, I found out that this is also known as Texas Sheet Cake. Kids love this cake as it has the max ratio of frosting to cake.

Stir together in a bowl:

- 2 cups sugar
- 2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Melt in a saucepan:

- 2 sticks margarine
- 5 tablespoons cocoa
- 1 cup water

Stir. Bring to a boil. Then remove from heat.

Add cocoa mixture to the dry ingredients.

Stir in:

- 2 eggs
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/2 cup milk
- Bake in a greased cookie sheet at 350° for 20 minutes.

Meanwhile make the frosting.

- 1 stick margarine
- 4 tablespoons cocoa
- 6 tablespoons milk

Bring to a boil, then stir in:

- 1 pound powdered sugar
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Pour warm frosting over warm cake. YUM!!

A New Orleans Favorite

BY KATHLEEN HARRISON

Bayona

430 Dauphine Street
New Orleans, LA 70122

<http://www.bayona.com/>

Kathleen Harrison

One of my favorite restaurants is Bayona in New Orleans. I have been going there for over 20 years, and whenever I have a conference in the area it is a must. The food is an eclectic mix inspired by flavors from around the globe and across the U.S. Everything is so fresh and seasonal. I tried their Crispy Smoked Quail Salad with pears on a recent visit...unbelievable is all I can say! For those who like sweet breads, Bayona is known for theirs. They have been on the menu since the day Susan Spicer opened Bayona over 23 years ago. Susan is usually there, and will come stop by your table. She is also willing to sign her cookbook, Crescent City Cooking: Unforgettable Recipes from Susan Spicer's New Orleans.

Stanhope, NJ 07874
973-347-3344

<http://blackforestinn.com/>

Lisa Desbiens

My favorite restaurant is The Black Forest Inn. It is a family-owned traditional German-Continental restaurant, with dishes influenced by European countries that neighbor Germany, such as France and Italy. Housed in a classic Tudor-style building, the atmosphere is warm and inviting and the cuisine is amazing. My husband and I have been going for more than 20 years, and our favorite meal is the sauerbraten, red cabbage, and potato dumpling. The staff is incredible as well – very professional, friendly, and accommodating.

Victorian Valbella

BY NANCY E. SOUZA

Valbella Restaurant

1309 East Putnam Avenue
Riverside, Connecticut
203-637-1155

Nancy celebrating her 50th birthday at Valbella in CT.

I love Valbella in Connecticut. Housed in a charming Victorian, this restaurant features three dining rooms, a wine cellar, and a new lush patio set amongst greenery, water features, and fire wells. Valbella delivers amazing, friendly service coupled with a spectacular menu with wine pairings. Their eat-in wine cellar exudes elegant warmth in a state-of-the-art setting. An experience to remember – but it will set you back, so save it for a special occasion.

Just a small sampling of selections on the menu now: Aragosta Con Brie – Danish lobster tails sauté with Grand Marnier served over baked Brie crusted with almond; Insalata D'Robiola – Arugula, hearts of palm, artichokes, roasted peppers, and robiola cheese in a red wine vinaigrette; Risotto Ai Granchio – Carnaroli rice served with sauté asparagus and king crab legs in a seafood broth; Filetto di Manzo Ripieno – Pounded filet mignon stuffed with mushrooms, onions, sausage, and fontina cheese wrapped in puff pastry with a Marsala wine reduction; plus a selection of homemade European desserts and so much more.

You can also visit their New York City locations, in the Meatpacking District and in Midtown too. I've been to the one Downtown; it's a beautiful space with similar delicacies.

Classic Italian

BY BRADLEY HUFF

Joseph's Restaurant

3 Hanover Square
New York, NY 10004
212-747-1300

<http://www.josephsdowntown.com/>

Bradley Huff

My favorite restaurant in New York City is an old-world Italian restaurant in the Financial District named Joseph's. When you walk in, stairs lead directly down to the dining room. There you are greeted by warm and friendly staff, then invited to enjoy excellent classic Italian dishes. Everything here is good, but you can't go wrong by starting with the Insalata Fatori, which features Romaine, green olives, and crumbled Gorgonzola. Then you can follow that up with the perfect presentation of Fettuccine Carbonara. This restaurant encompasses Wall Street culture to a "T"! If you decide to try it out, don't be surprised if you run into me.

College: The University of Scranton

If you could do a guest role on a TV show, which one would it be?

Last Man Standing with Tim Allen. Our characters have a lot in common.

What is your favorite restaurant?

What I wish my answer was: Lattanzi, for its fine dining and charming atmosphere. My real answer: Applebees, for the appetizer sampler, ample televisions, and 32 oz. mega beers.

If you could have lunch with any person, living or dead (other than a relative), who would it be?

Jesus Christ. Not for any religious reasons, but for the following:

1. Question: You're down one run in the top of the 9th, no outs and a runner on first...What would Jesus do?
2. Question: Can you hit a curve ball? I need to know this to help settle the debate between Harris and Pedro Cerrano in the movie Major League.
3. Cheap bill: We would continue to order refills of water, and secretly be drinking wine!
4. Finally, to send the following tweet: Hey @Tim-Tebow316...guess who I'm having lunch with??? #yourboy. We're at Applebees. #appetizersampler #BloodofChrist.

So to recap: at lunch with Jesus I ask two baseball questions, drink wine, and taunt Tim Tebow.

What do you know for sure?

I'm Good Enough, I'm Smart Enough, and Doggone It, People Like Me!

What three adjectives best describe you?

Handsome. Awesome. Modest.

What's your favorite movie?

1. Dirty Work (with Norm MacDonald, my favorite comedian).
- 1A. Road House (with Patrick Swayze - has quite possibly the greatest quote in movie history, which is unprintable).

What age would you like to be right now?

Eight months seems great (I could get used to the lack of responsibility and 24/7 service), but in all honesty I'm cool with my current age, because if I were eight months old, I probably wouldn't be married and have my kids.

What would you do or buy if you won the lottery?

Sounds corny, but I'd make sure I took care of my family (help loved ones pay off debts, etc.), and make sure my kids were set for life. If it was a HUGE amount, I'd probably end my work career similar to how the character Scarface from the movie Half Baked did (search "Scarface quits his job" on YouTube).

Hobbies?

Not Applicable. I have a full-time job, a wife, and two small children. I traded my hobbies and a hobby to be named later for that package.

What are your goals?

1. Keep my daughters off the pole.
2. Live long enough to dance with them at their weddings.
3. Be thought of as the type of rep who cares about those he works with and is helpful and knows his stuff, not annoying.
4. Buy the Phillies.

What is the biggest obstacle you have overcome?

Being "taught everything I know" by Gene Conselyea (Managing Principal of Triple Threat). Had to spend a lot of time re-learning everything.

Who was your favorite teacher?

Edna Krabappel from The Simpsons. Had a great laugh.

What do you wish you knew more about?

Healthcare marketing...

What are two things on your lifelong "to do" list?

1. See a baseball game in every major league city (almost halfway there).
2. Watch the Eagles win a Super Bowl (this one may be a stretch...I've come to grips with that).

What is your pet peeve?

1. When people say, "I could care less." It's actually "I couldn't care less." Meaning that you care so little, that you couldn't possibly care less.
2. When people don't REPLY ALL when they clearly should. Hey, thanks for making me now forward this to everyone.

Have you ever had a brush with fame?

I just recently found out that I share a birthday with Casey Anthony. So that stinks. Also Bruce Willis, and the guy who co-created The Facebook (the one who got screwed over by Zuckerberg and Justin Timberlake).

What is one thing you can't live without?

I'm no doctor (I just make them look at ads), but I believe the answer is "oxygen."

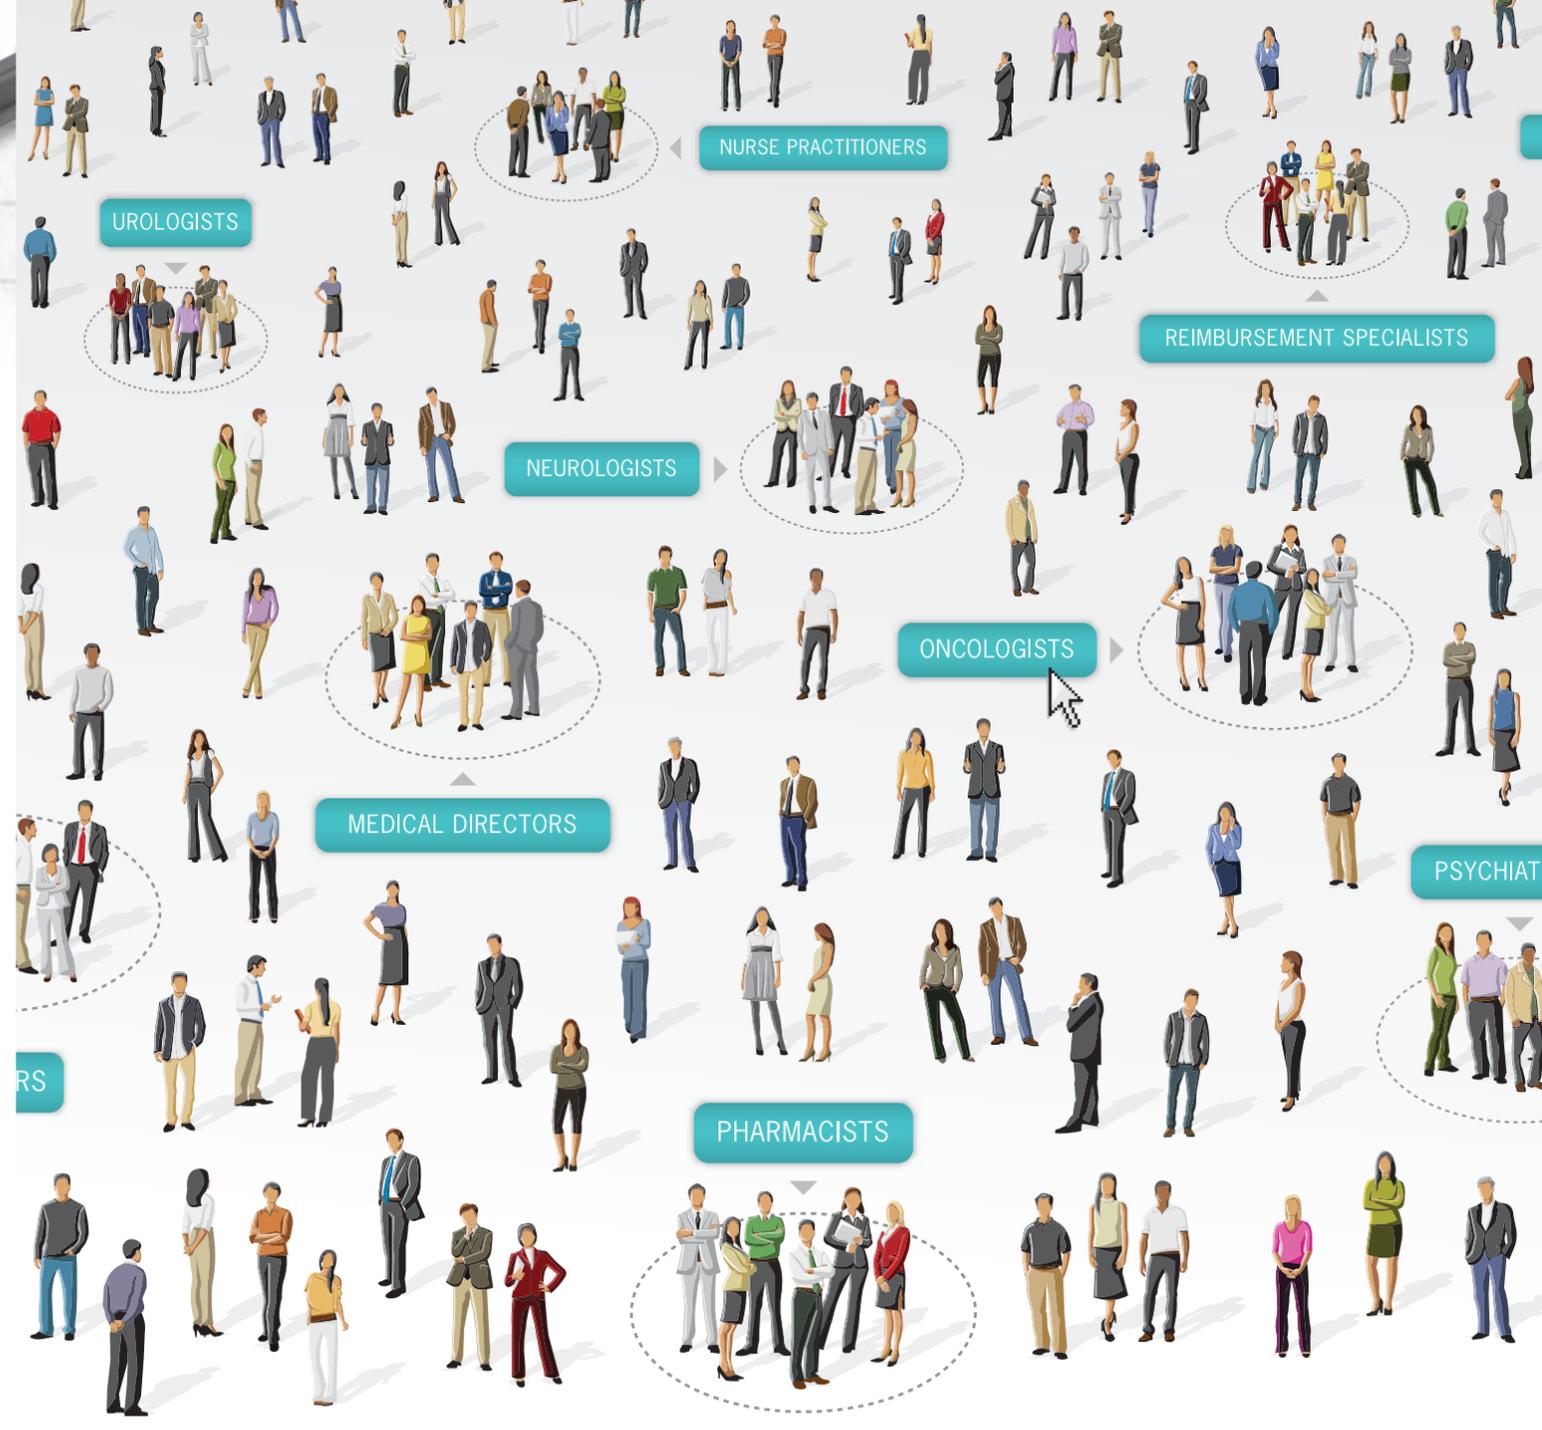

What do you think is the most important issue facing us today?

As a father, I'm really getting behind this anti-bullying thing. Mainly for children, as they shouldn't have to worry about that type of stuff, but even later in life. I see too many examples in adults...overly tan clowns who think they can push everyone around, harass people into giving them what they want, and sue people for the sole purpose of making their lives miserable. People like this hypothetical person and all bullies need to do some major re-evaluating. Can't we all just get along?

What is your favorite quote?

Other than the quote from Road House, it would have to be: "To be the man, you've gotta beat the man. Woooooooooooooooo!" - Ric Flair

That's how many times pharmacists talk to patients and caregivers every day.

Shouldn't you be talking to pharmacists?

Pharmacists are the last healthcare professionals to speak to the patient before they receive and take their medication. Are pharmacists recommending your product, or suggesting an alternative to it?

Pharmacy Times is the number one full-service media resource, with over 100 years of credibility, integrity, and trust. We can deliver your brand's message to pharmacists anytime, anywhere.

Pharmacy Times can reach the entire pharmacy audience with a coordinated and integrated multimedia approach allowing advertisers to easily achieve the optimal frequency that results in brand recognition and message retention.

- Pharmacy Times journal circulation includes over 168,000 retail pharmacists
- Our media resources include print, digital, mobile, live events, and custom educational programs
- We offer more than 15 advertising and single-sponsor opportunities to communicate your brand's message
